New Paltz, NY – Mohonk Mountain Stage Company will present Uncorrected Proof: an evening of three wickedly funny short stories, on Saturday, April 22 at 8 PM at St. Andrew's Church on Main Street in New Paltz. Admission is $10. For reservations, please call 255-3102.

This will be an evening featuring an exceptional collection of three short stories, written by master storytellers and interpreted by three of MMSC's talented readers.

The Fix by Percival Everett (from damnedifido) •

Read by Jack Kroll

- A stranger gets a job in a sandwich shop and fixes everything in sight: a manual mustard dispenser, a mouthful of crooked teeth, thirty-two parking tickets and a sexual-identity problem.

Personal Testimony by Lynna Williams (from Texas Bound) • Read by Elizabeth Barrows

- A nine-year old girl discovers that she can fabricate "personal testimonies" for the kids at her summer Bible camp who just can't come up with anything dramatic to confess.

Orientation by Daniel Orozco (from The Seattle Review) • Read by Julie Eads Woolley

- A first-day-on-the-job tour of the office. Simultaneously sinister and fun, impersonal and human, very sly, very cool.

Close out April with these three wry, bittersweet and gently funny tales about how the course of true life never does run straight.
